

Week 2

MESSAGE FROM ARCHBISHOP LEGATT

“... it is increasingly clear that in a parish, the two key sources and prime movers are the Pastors....and the Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) (surrounded by all the faithful)”.

DID YOU KNOW?

That our parish has a Parish Pastoral Council (PPC)?

WHAT IS A PPC?

“A PPC is made up of the Pastor, along with a group of parishioners who are representative of the parish. They meet regularly to pray and work together in co-responsibility toward the development of the Catholic community and the spiritual growth of its members. The PPC aims to engage and enable the whole parish community to a fuller participation in the mission of the parish by encouraging pastoral activity in accordance with the mission of the parish. “(Upper Room Guidelines)

WHAT IS THE FUNCTION OF A PPC?

The PPC acts as a compass to help the parish attain the course of its mission. It is vital in the life of a parish in its unique and distinctive role as the primary reflective body.

WHO ARE THE MEMBERS OF OUR PPC?

Pastor: Fr. Robert Laroche
Chairperson: Denis Foidart
Vice-Chair: Roland Gagné
Secretary: Katina Collette

Elizabeth Pereira
Daniel Malo
Lynne Fillion
Murielle Bugera

STEPS TOWARD REVITALIZATION

Since February 8th, the PPC has been meeting with Paulette Vielfaure-Dupuis, member of the “Diocesan Committee for the Renewal & Growth of Parish Pastoral Councils”. Together we are journeying towards a REVITALIZED Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) committed to defining the pastoral situation of the parish and the initiatives required to meet its particular needs.
